

ECONOMICS

A degree in economics from Drexel LeBow’s School of Economics provides students with an understanding of the workings of the market system and major economic institutions, as well as economic policy and development. The School of Economics is ranked among the best in the world for research on international trade, and its faculty includes leading scholars in banking, monetary and fiscal policy, and industrial organization.

DEGREE OPTIONS

- BS in Economics
- BA in Economics
- BS in Business Administration — Co-major in Economics
- BS in Economics/MBA
- Minor in Economics
- Minor in International Economics

COURSEWORK

- Game Theory and Applications
- Microeconomics and Macroeconomics
- International Trade, Money and Finance
- Business Statistics
- Economic Policy and Labor Economics
- Economics of Small Business
- Public Finance
- Economic Development
- Environmental Economics

CAREER OUTLOOK

Graduates with a degree in economics find success in careers in finance, law, medicine, government, international relations, non-profit management and academia. Many go on to pursue graduate and doctoral degrees. Recent graduate school placements include Columbia University, Princeton University, University of Chicago and the London School of Economics.

AVERAGE CO-OP WEEKLY PAY

$720

TOP CO-OP EMPLOYERS

CHUBB
Comcast Corporation
Susquehanna Intl. Group

AVERAGE STARTING SALARY

$67,250

CONTACT

Mark Stehr, PhD
3220 Market St., Office 1021 | Philadelphia, PA 19104
215.895.0554 | stehr@drexel.edu

DREXEL UNIVERSITY
LeBow
College of Business