The Organizational Management program at Drexel LeBow prepares students with the skills such as communication, teamwork, cross-cultural sensitivity, ethical decision-making, negotiation and leadership that are essential to working in complex organizations. This program prepares students for leadership roles in organizations with a strong focus on the development and motivation of people.

DEGREE OPTIONS

- BS in Business Administration — Co-major in Organizational Management
- BS in Business Administration/MBA
- Minor in Organizational Management

COURSEWORK

- Leadership Theory and Practice
- Team Development and Leadership
- Negotiations and Conflict Resolution
- Strategic Career Development
- Principles of Human Resource Administration
- Designing Innovative Organizations
- Business Consulting
- Management Simulation

CAREER OUTLOOK

Graduates with an organizational management co-major explore careers working with people and organizations and find success in roles in training and development, human resources, non-profit leadership, education and community-based organizations.

CONTACT

Murugan Anandarajan, PhD
3220 Market St., Office 637 | Philadelphia, PA 19104
215.895.6212 | ma33@drexel.edu

---

AVERAGE CO-OP WEEKLY PAY

$635

TOP CO-OP EMPLOYERS

- SAP America
- KPMG LLP
- Comcast Corporation

AVERAGE STARTING SALARY

$54,200