

LEGAL STUDIES

Developing an understanding of the law can supplement work in all areas of the business world. Drexel LeBow's legal studies program is for students seeking a career in law as well as non-law students who want to understand how legal issues affect their future professions. The recommended plan of study includes classes in communications, economics, finance, international business and critical reasoning, in addition to legal studies.

DEGREE OPTIONS

- BS in Business Administration — Major in Legal Studies
- BS in Business Administration/MBA
- Minor in Legal Studies

COURSEWORK

- Real Estate
- Government Regulation and Business
- International Business Law
- Criminal Law
- Entrepreneurial Law
- White Collar Crime
- Labor and Employment Law
- Intellectual Property and Cyber Law

CAREER OUTLOOK

While the natural assumption is that students in a legal studies program plan to go on to law school after graduation, and many do, a background in the law and legal systems benefits graduates interested in all areas of business. Legal studies graduates go on to careers in real estate, law enforcement, hospital administration, business consulting, government affairs and financial management.
