DREXEL UNIVERSITY LEBOW COLLEGE OF BUSINESS GRADUATE PROGRAMS

MASTER'S IN MARKETING

Drexel LeBow's Master of Science in Marketing is designed to reflect the latest insights and applications in both theory and practice, backed by the University's over 100-year history of experiential education. The curriculum, shaped by industry feedback, covers the most critical and in-demand marketing skills. Through individualized career services and hands-on learning opportunities, such as international residences, internships and industry consulting, you'll develop practical skills that will help you excel in the field.

DEGREE HIGHLIGHTS

Drexel LeBow's MS in Marketing offers several program formats to help accommodate your schedule. Its full-time program can be taken in person on the University City Campus in Philadelphia, while its part-time program can be taken in person or online. Complete your degree in 15 to 36 months, and you'll be prepared to lead with experience in your career.

CONCEPTS AND SKILLS

Some of the concepts and skills you'll learn about or develop through our MS in Marketing include:

- COMMUNICATION MANAGEMENT
- CONSUMER ANALYTICS
- CONSUMER BEHAVIOR
- DIGITAL MEDIA MANAGEMENT
- GLOBAL MARKETING
- INTEGRATED MARKETING CAMPAIGNS
- MARKETING TECHNOLOGY
- QUALITATIVE AND QUANTITATIVE MARKETING RESEARCH METHODOLOGIES
- STRATEGIC PLANNING AND RISK MANAGEMENT TOOLS

CUSTOMIZATION OPTIONS

CONCENTRATIONS

Tailor your studies to your career goals by selecting from one of three concentrations, including digital marketing technology (STEM-designated), marketing technology and analytics (STEM-designated), and marketing leadership.

GRADUATE MINORS

Take interrelated graduate-level courses outside of your major graduate program, with examples including minors in entrepreneurship, project management, business analytics and business.

DUAL DEGREE

Earn an MS in Marketing while also earning another LeBow graduate degree; the College offers the ability to share up to 15 credits between two of its degree programs so you can maximize your time and financial investment.

CAREER OUTCOMES

Upon graduation, some job titles you could be eligible for include:

- ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE
- DIGITAL MARKETING STRATEGIST
- MARKETING MANAGER
- PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT MANAGER
- SOCIAL MEDIA ANALYST
