Business Law at Drexel University

TOP CO-OP EMPLOYERS

Duane Morris LLP
PECO
Philadelphia District Attorney's Office
Morgan Lewis
University of Pennsylvania

MEDIAN CO-OP HOURLY PAY

$21

Median co-op hourly pay for business law majors

AVERAGE STARTING SALARY

$60,000

Average starting salary for business law majors, class of 2025

Rather than focusing exclusively on preparing students for law school, Drexel LeBow's BSBA in Business Law combines legal theory with a practical, business-centered approach. Through case-based analysis, applied problem-solving and experiential learning, you'll develop the legal reasoning and critical thinking skills needed to evaluate risk, interpret laws and make informed business decisions. This applied focus differentiates LeBow graduates, preparing them to navigate legal complexity in business with confidence from the start of their careers.

Degree Options

- BS in Business Administration — Major in Business Law
- BS in Business Administration/MBA
- Minor in Business Law

Coursework Examples

- Real Estate Law
- Information Privacy, Data and the Law
- International Business Law
- Employment Law
- Entrepreneurial Law
- White Collar Crime
- Intellectual Property and Cyber Law

Career Outlook

By exploring business through the lens of law, you can graduate to become a business leader and influence critical industry decisions. Your career path can span across a wide range of industries and organizations, such as business, compliance, consulting and real estate.

Learn more about this program by scanning the QR code or visiting lebow.drexel.edu/academics/undergraduate

Version no. 261026-01

LEBOW.DREXEL.EDU

Caitlin Brady, Director, Undergraduate Programs & Recruitment
215.571.3570 | cem398@drexel.edu

DREXEL UNIVERSITY
LeBow
College of Business