Real Estate Management and Development at Drexel University

Drexel LeBow's BSBA in Real Estate Management and Development (REMD) provides you with the critical-thinking, communication, decision-making and problem-solving skills needed to succeed in the evolving real estate industry. In this program, coursework integrates financial modeling, market analysis, case studies and project-based assignments while also equipping you with a core understanding in property valuation, real estate finance, portfolio management, sustainability and more.

TOP CO-OP EMPLOYERS

Toll Brothers
Urban Outfitters
PMC Property Group

MEDIAN CO-OP HOURLY PAY

$20

Median co-op hourly pay for REMD majors

AVERAGE STARTING SALARY

$66,900

Average starting salary for REMD majors, class of 2025

Degree Options

- BS in Business Administration — Major in Real Estate Management and Development
- BS in Business Administration/MBA
- Minor in Real Estate Management and Development

Coursework Examples

- Real Estate Finance
- Real Estate Investment and Asset Management
- Real Estate Law
- Sustainability in the Built Environment
- Urban Finance and Environmental Planning
- Senior Capstone

Career Outlook

A business degree with a major in real estate management and development will prepare you for careers in property management, real estate finance, development, investment and asset management, and brokerage or related fields. The program also provides a strong foundation for graduate study in real estate, urban development, finance or business.

Learn more about this program by scanning the QR code or visiting lebow.drexel.edu/academics/undergraduate

Version no. 261026-01

LEBOW.DREXEL.EDU

Caitlin Brady, Director, Undergraduate Programs & Recruitment
215.571.3570 | cem398@drexel.edu

DREXEL UNIVERSITY LeBow College of Business